Hi Melissa,

March 16th from 11-12 works for us. We'll plan on a conference call for now, but may try to come down if schedules permit.

Is it okay if I contact Dave Serdar next week on the econ analysis supporting info?

And yes, the Maine decision went out this week. I've attached the documents -- there's also a response to comments to document, but the file size is huge, so I didn't forward that. Let us know if you want to discuss.

Thanks,
Matt

Hi Melissa,

Here's a couple dates/times that work for us to discuss public comments the week of March 16. Right now, I'm counting on Angela, Dan and myself. We can decide closer to if it makes sense for us to come down or have a conference call. It may depend on which time works best for you all.

Monday 3/16: between 9:30-1:00

Tuesday 3/17: after 2:00

Wednesday 3/18: afternoon looks wide open/could possibly meet in the AM as a last resort

We'll send you the Maine decision when we get it -- and if you want to have a call to discuss it, please let us know.

I'll keep a look out for Dave Sedar's contact info after you give him a heads up I may be calling him.

Thanks,
